

BESTIAL LOVE

Alternate Realities creating mirrors Into Microscopic millia of portals Descending into beings of light

As we search for interconnectedness we encounter ourselves Mirroring
our habitual disconnection to self ?
embracing the disparity of our Dystopian reality
Then peace prevails.

Rest here a while

Where we can finally dance To the dearth of our own sonnet a visual representation of a visceral illusion Cavities knocking
At our own Darth Vaders of light invaders Teleported to extremes
A world beneath the sea Twinkling iterations Dancing like twilight dawns Into Shadows - connecting but never seen Vapour Rising like a frisson in the foam
At once freeing and holding revelation Molten lightening
Extended into some portal of reality Portended into fragments of our frailty Unilateral conventions
Sparking dystopian
Records of free flowing dynasties Butting heads but visiting a peep show into the eternity of our minds like the death of treasure troves pearls and light seekers

To be held into an eternity Lights dimming bowing to convention of otherworldly carnal pleasures of delight Symposiums of evolution

Twinkling lights of beauty like a runway of pleasure seekers guiding you home to primal truth & belonging Sucked into the cavernous knowing of our existence

Deers bouncing into openness and surrender Seemingly begotten splendour Revelling in the utopian diaspora of dystopian desire

Why did we choose this begotten dance ?
Bestial incarnate
Chaotic thoughts & dreams Too far to hold and too near to see The warmth
The gaze construct in the fire
This fire of the forgotten beast Exhale into the forced longing of our time
The shrill cacophony of an echo in my mind

Choosing to remember as it bounds closer like a bouncing joyful epiphany of oneness joined two the carnal vortex of being.
